The Berghof Approach

While conflict is inevitable, violence is not. We bring people in conflict together, creating space for conflict transformation.

What is conflict transformation?

Learn about conflict transformation and other key themes in our work.

Course

Transformative peace education

This online course provides theoretical basics informed by current issues as well as insights into proven methods from the Berghof Foundation's peace education practice in Germany and abroad.

Impact

Solving local conflicts to unblock development

In Al-Absiyya, a small village in Yemen's mountainous central highlands, the brand-new local health centre lay slowly falling apart for the last four years.
